DRUG CLASS

DRUG CLASS: 26 x 30 minute episodes

Rand Teed, a drug and alcohol educator, works with students struggling with varying levels of drug and alcohol consumption. Each student's story is told through their personal diary cams, the drug classes, counselling sessions and a view into their everyday lives. While some clean up their act using his method and guidance, not everyone is so lucky.

Kristie had a severe ecstasy problem which resulted in an overdose causing brain damage. She is making some significant changes in her life and figuring out what the next steps should be.

Suzanne has had a history of poly substance abuse. She wants to change, but she is afraid of what will happen if she doesn't have drugs as her crutch.

Travis has a history of drug abuse ranging from alcohol to solvents. He is currently doing well and is starting to figure out how to live life clean and sober.

Kirsten has had a history of depression and a severe pattern of regular drug abuse. She has decided she wants to be clean and sober and is working hard to get there.

Amanda's life revolved around smoking marijuana. She is getting back to being herself after overcoming some destructive thinking and is enjoying her newfound freedom.

Cyara had a marijuana problem and she is starting to discover how good it can be to just really be yourself.
